
Are you a Silent Speaker?

Silent Speakers are people who understand much of their language but do not speak it.

Come and take your language back!

Our community will be offering weekly classes that are designed to help silent speakers begin using their language again. This program comes from the Indigenous Sámi people in Norway & Sweden who have been successfully taking their language back.

WHEN: Once/week starting early 2019, exact date TBA (10 classes)

WHERE: Fort Rupert Learning Centre starting in January 2019

HOW MUCH: No cost for the course but it is limited to 10 participants.
